

Bloomsbury's

FIND YOUR ADVENTURE

A woman with dark, wavy hair is shown from the chest up, wearing a patterned top and a light-colored apron. She is looking down at a surface, possibly a countertop, where she is working with a glass. The entire image is covered with a semi-transparent teal overlay. The title 'Lady Bloomsbury' is written in a white, elegant script font, centered over the woman's face and upper torso.

Lady Bloomsbury

The 20th century brought with it the winds of modernization, but not yet for women. But one lady freed herself from the four walls of her home and went on an epic solo adventure around the world. Lady Bloomsbury bought a one-way ticket on a steamer setting off for the other side of the world.

But she was not just a mere traveler. She played her part in breaking the shackles for women. In 1913, she marched for women's voting rights in America. She climbed Mount Kilimanjaro in a skirt. During the First World War, she traveled to Europe to work as an undercover journalist on the front lines.

Decades later, her journal was found. Dog-eared, with pressed flowers from around the world, and smelling the spices of faraway lands. Lady Bloomsbury was a culinary adventurer too. Between her entries on travel were notes and recipes for the wonderful foods and cuisines of the world.

Bloomsbury's is a tribute to her adventures, culinary and beyond. A celebration of all the delights from around the world that she savored. May you taste her adventure in every bite.
